

2013 Annual Tennessee Government Leadership Conference

The Tennessee Department of Human Resources' Strategic Learning Solutions division and the Tennessee Government Leadership (TGL) Council are pleased to announce registration is now open for the 2013 Annual Tennessee Government Leadership Conference.

The conference will be held at the Curb Event Center on the Belmont University campus on October 30, 2013 from 8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. Registration opens at 7:00 a.m., with networking and a continental breakfast beginning at 7:30 a.m.

This year's conference centers around the theme "Creating a Culture of Innovation", and will feature author and Speaker Hall of Fame member Steve Gilliland as the keynote speaker. Using stories and comedy, Mr. Gilliland will share his perspective of the purpose-driven leader as a continual learner, and guarantees that we will leave with a "renewed sense of enthusiasm for who we are and what really matters"!

Our learning facilitator is Dr. Jeff Thompson from Peak Learning, nationally known for his work in helping leaders understand adversity and strategically approach it through the Adversity Quotient model. He will bring to us new perspectives on how to maximize the impact of our values as leaders and assess how we spend our time and energy for greater effectiveness.

In addition to a powerful line-up of conference sessions and speakers, the TGL Council will introduce the new TGL Black Belt Leadership Program designed specifically for alumni of LEAD Tennessee, TGEI and TGMI. You will have the opportunity to learn about this exciting initiative created for your continued personal and professional leadership journey. You will also find out how to sign up, become a White Belt, and start earning your leadership Yellow Belt!

Conference registration this year has been held to $100 per person, with continental breakfast, lunch, and free parking included. Registration itself couldn't be easier – simply go to https://adobeformscentral.com/?f=LLLyPxxEHBVuCVyN*FJDw and sign up today.

We look forward to a day filled with great networking and inspiring messages, shared with you all!
